

Governor's Community Crime Prevention Summit

Saturday, November 8, 2008

Police and Correctional Training Commissions, 6852 4th St., Sykesville, MD 21784
9 a.m. to 2:30 p.m.

LEARN receive training and technical assistance for your public safety strategies

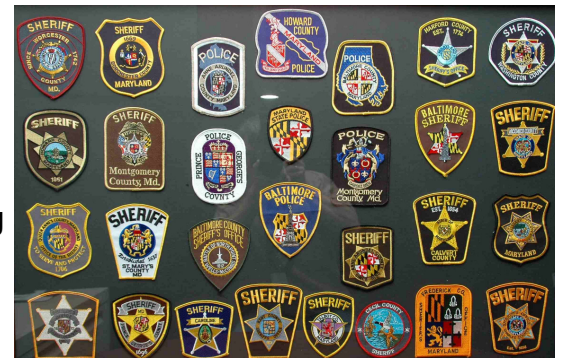

CONNECT meet community leaders that share your goals

HONOR acknowledge the hard work you and your law enforcement partners do to create strong, sustainable communities

ACT plan and implement public safety projects with your local law enforcement partners

$150,000 IN GRANT FUNDS TO BE RELEASED AT THE SUMMIT

$150,000 in competitive grant funding will be made available for community crime prevention projects through the Governor's Office of Crime Control & Prevention. To be eligible, applicants must be 501(c)3 organizations that demonstrate a working relationship with their local law enforcement agencies. Applicants must apply electronically and may request funding for the following purpose areas: Community Crime Prevention Activities, Youth Crime Prevention Activities, Community Support Programs for addiction and re-entry, Physical Improvement Programs, and Public Safety Training.

Registration begins September 1. Please limit participation to two persons per applicant organization. For more information or to register, call the GOCCP Community Ambassador assigned to your county:

Baltimore City, Wicomico, Worcester, Somerset:
Debra Arnold, 410-821-2852

Allegany, Garrett, Washington, Frederick:
Don Napier, 410-821-2851

Prince George's, Charles, Calvert, St. Mary's:
Jim Edmonds, 410-821-2849

Montgomery, Howard, Anne Arundel, Harford:
Patty Mochel, 410-821-2836

Carroll, Baltimore County, Cecil, Kent:
Erin Newton, 410-821-2887

Queen Anne's, Caroline, Talbot, Dorchester:
Tammy Schwartz, 410-821-2830

Governor's Community Crime Prevention Summit hosted by the Governor's Office of Crime Control & Prevention in partnership with the Governor's Office of Community Initiatives and the Police and Correctional Training Commissions

www.goccp.org